

Cascading hazards

Cascading hazards are where one or more natural hazards, caused by the same 'trigger' event, affect human life and/or property.

- 1 Earthquake (trigger event)
- 2 Submarine slide
- 3 Tsunami

