

Whakaari / White Island Eruption 9 December 2019

What support is available and where can you get help

Bay of Plenty Civil Defence Emergency Management (CDEM)

Bay of Plenty Civil Defence Emergency Management is coordinating assistance to communities and all those affected by the Whakaari / White Island eruption.

Inquiry for missing persons

We encourage anyone worried about a loved one to attempt to contact them as they normally would in the first instance. If unable to make contact by normal means of communication people may contact NZ Police on the '105' line and provide information or/requests for information. If you are overseas call +64 49 105 105 to speak to New Zealand Police.

Where to turn for help and support

It's normal for you and your family to feel upset and physically drained after events like this. You're not alone in feeling this way, and you don't have to cope on your own. If you need support or advice, or have feelings of anxiety, stress, prolonged fear, hopelessness or anger, or you just need to talk with someone, you can text or phone 1737 to speak to a trained counsellor. It is free to call or text.

If you have health questions, phone Healthline on 0800 611 116. Healthline is staffed by experienced registered nurses 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Other options

- Emergencies: 111
- Police non-emergencies: 105 (calling from overseas: +64 49 105 105)

Remember, in an emergency, always call 111.

Financial support

Extra financial support is available to people affected by the Whakaari / White Island eruption.

In emergencies, Work and Income can help you with costs you don't have any other way of paying. You do not need to be on a benefit to be eligible and even if you don't think you qualify, call Work and Income on 0800 559 009 to check your eligibility. There may be other options available and Work and Income can point you in the right direction.

You can find more information (including eligibility criteria) on the Work and Income website at www.workandincome.govt.nz under 'benefits and payments'. Work and Income can help with:

- loss of livelihood (where you can't work and have lost your income because of the Whakaari / White Island eruption)

Call Work and Income on 0800 559 009 to find out more.

Loss of income

Work and Income may be able to help if you have lost wages because of the Whakaari / White Island eruption. For example, if:

- you can't work because your workplace is closed, or
- you have to stay home and look after family members.

Other help from Work and Income

Work and Income also provides other help such as benefits and housing assistance. Everyone's situation is different, so what you qualify for will depend on your situation.

Contacting Work and Income

Contact Work and Income if you:

- would like assistance
- aren't sure if you can get assistance
- are struggling to support yourself, or your family
- would like more information.

Visit the Work and Income website www.workandincome.govt.nz or phone 0800 559 009.

Work and Income may be able to help you over the phone, without you coming into an office.

If you do need to come in, Work and Income will make an appointment and tell you what to bring.
